New York Stock Market

week more of uncertainty aneas the Supreme Court's action in the antitrust cases and with all the much in the stock market. The excite-Court decisions were expected so confidently, gave way to-day to dullness Price movements were narrow, excepin the cases of a few issues which ap-parently were selected for manipulation to lend some appearance of animation to the market. But builtsh and such large volumes of stock ap-peared on advances that recessions quickly followed, and during the re-mainder of the session the undertone was rather heavy.

Bonds were steady, Central of Geor gia incomes were especially strong. Total sales, par value, $1,703,000. United States 4s, coupon, advanced 1-8 on call. Total sales for the day, 182,700

It is expected that several more arrests will follow to-day, as it is understood that Colonel Haskell has on his official list the names of several men, known to Washington house-keepers as dependable dealers, who have been making money by cheating these trusting buyers.

Mr. Sari said that many dalers were in the habit of selling an olive oil to customers that was way under measure for the price of full measure, and thereby ruining the trade of other dealers who were trying to make an honest living. In other cases, he said, the oil was diluted and a further profit
